PFRS Series: Related Party Transactions and Disclosures

October 24, 2014
8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon
WSDC Training Room, 2nd Floor, SGV Building I

PFRS Series are half-day training courses designed for more focused, back-to-the-basics discussions on specific accounting standards. The courses are a mix of basic concepts and actual hands-on practice or case studies. Participants may choose to register in only one course or in various courses, depending on their specific training needs.

Related Party Transactions and Disclosures
The increasing focus by the public, in general, and the regulators, in particular, regarding related party transactions make it imperative that entities properly identify who their related parties are, account for these transactions accurately and ensure completeness of the disclosures on related party transactions.

This workshop will help participants determine an entity’s related parties and gain familiarization not only regarding the disclosure requirements of PAS 24, but also with the regulatory requirements on disclosures of related party transactions.
